 any daily paper in this section.

Col. Alfred Dreyfus is still under his lucky star.

It's the three F's in the first district congressional fight—Fish, Foster, Fleetwood.

Page of Hyde Park, they say, is already getting prepared to move on Washington.

It is gently rumored that the Montpelier Republicans are finding it difficult to agree among themselves on a candidate for county senator. Better leave it out to Barre City.—Waterbury Record.

Barre could find a good man in Montpelier if given the chance.

The little flurry of uneasiness in the Barre opera house Wednesday night when the electrical storm put the lighting facilities of the theatre out of commission calls attention to two conditions, one of which is that the theatre, although on the second floor of the building, is comparatively well provided for the outpouring of an audience in an emergency, there being three exits by door and fire escapes on either side of the structure. This is just a reminder to serve to reassure people who may feel timid. The other condition, or lack of condition is perhaps more accurate, is the fact that were the electric lighting facilities to be entirely disabled there is no substitute means of lighting.
 There will prove to be occasions when gas lights are necessary. The theatre ought to be piped for gas, and the city should attend to this matter.

A LARGE COLLECTIVE LOSS TO BARRE'S INDUSTRIES.

One of our granite trade exchanges recalls that not within the experience of its editor has the Barre granite industry been called upon to sustain the loss of so many men as during the past month, referring to the death of Joseph M.
 Brault, Frank H. Burke and John A.
 Martinson. The same fact has been commented on locally, and it is generally agreed that the death angel has never before made such inroads within so short a period as that which compassed the demise of the three men mentioned.

We have arranged with an experienced clothing man in New York to become a special buyer for our store. His whole time is devoted to hunting up every new fashion fad and fancy for men's wear that is seen on Fifth Avenue or displayed in the Broadway stores.

Now we can give you unusual advantages. Here you'll find samples of all the novelties as soon as they are displayed in New York, and by having a man "on the spot" we will be able to pick up goods occasionally at one fourth to one half their regular price.
